

MSO

FOR SCHOOLS 2022

In 2022 the MSO brings together wonderful artists, stunning repertoire and an impressive array of guest conductors to inspire students and support the work of teachers in the classroom.

MSO For Schools includes concerts for students of all ages and abilities, professional development opportunities for generalist and specialist music classroom teachers, opportunities for advanced students to extend themselves and pathways for schools to engage with the MSO for the first time.

Thanks to the generosity of numerous supporters we've lowered all tickets to just $9, making MSO For Schools more accessible than ever before.

KINDER TO YEAR 2

Jams for Schools

Tuesday 30 August / 10am, 11am, 12pm, 1pm
Iwaki Auditorium, Southbank | All tickets $9

Harness the power of music to inspire and engage in the early years with Jams for Schools, the MSO's interactive workshop for students in kindergarten to grade one and their teachers.

The Jam is a bounding exploration of Mussorgsky's famous Pictures at an Exhibition!

Led by dynamic presenter, Karen Kyriakou, Jams for Schools offers you and your students the opportunity to discover and play along with beautiful arrangements of orchestral repertoire. Included in the workshop is your chance to meet-and-greet musicians of the MSO and get up close and personal with them and their instruments.

The best thing? No prior experience is required!

MSO Schools' Concerts are supported by Crown Resorts Foundation and Packer Family Foundation.

YEARS 3 TO 9

Carnival of the Animals

Thursday 19 May / 10.30am (Years 3–6)
Friday 20 May / 12.30pm (Years 7–9)
Hamer Hall, Southbank | All tickets $9

The MSO presents Carnival of the Animals, a must-hear work for all students, to delight and capture the imaginations of both young and old. The humorous depiction of animals in Saint-Saëns' Zoological Fantasy are brought to life through music and puppetry live on the Hamer Hall stage; this concert will be quite the menagerie!

This MSO production includes some unexpected visitors - the addition of extra wildlife, commissioned especially for the event.

Melbourne Symphony Orchestra

Graham Abbott conductor

Nicholas Bochner presenter

Stravinsky The Firebird

Hindson Speed

Dive into the music of two seminal composers. Guided by conductor, educator and former ABC Classic announcer Graham Abbott, students will explore two strikingly different works: Stravinsky's The Firebird and Australian composer Matthew Hindson's Speed. Both works are large scale, exciting and unashamedly distinct. Graham will give insight to students, to provide a pathway to understanding these ground-breaking works.

Meet the Music is supported by the Department of Education & Training Victoria and by Crown Resorts Foundation and Packer Family Foundation.

Nicholas Bochner presenter

Mussorgsky Pictures at an Exhibition

Carl Vine Symphony No.2

Explore the music of two champions of the orchestra, composers whose contribution to the orchestral landscape is undeniable. Guided by MSO Assistant Conductor Nicholas Bochner, we'll explore Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition, originally written for solo piano. Later orchestrated by Ravel, and in 2001, by Chinese/Australian composer Julian Yu, this work has captured the imagination of all who hear it, whilst Carl Vine's Symphony No.2 has the power and grandeur of Australia – a feast of contrast and sound! This special concert format is ideal for curious students evolving their understanding of compositional technique and developing their analytical vocabulary.

Meet the Music is supported by the Department of Education & Training Victoria and by Crown Resorts Foundation and Packer Family Foundation.

Borodin Overture and Polovtsian Dances
(from Prince Igor)

This incredible orchestral experience will remain with students for a lifetime! Open to young musicians of secondary school age, this inspiring and intensive event will take place over two days, culminating in a public performance in Hamer Hall. Participants will experience life in the orchestra through an intensive rehearsal period, including tutorials with MSO musicians sharing their best tips and extensive wealth of experience and knowledge. This opportunity is for those who aspire to a professional career in music or who crave a taste of the best the world has to offer in a nurturing learning environment.

This program is best suited to students with AMEB grade 8 or equivalent

Non-auditioned, application by cover letter/CV and supporting reference document from Head of Music or instrumental teacher. To apply for Schools Side by Side visit msoschools.com.au

Work Experience

Two placements:

Tuesday 28 – Thursday 30 June / 10am–4pm
OR

Tuesday 9 – Thursday 11 August / 10am–4pm

MSO Work Experience offers students an opportunity for meaningful, well-rounded engagement with the MSO as a major performing arts company, as well as the arts sector more broadly.

Placements are run in a group format over three days, with a strong focus on arts administration. During their time with the MSO, students will have the opportunity to meet with musicians and staff, mix with the MSO's industry-leading artistic planning team, observe orchestral rehearsals and explore Melbourne's arts precinct. In the event of COVID-19 restrictions still being in place, this program will run online.

Applications open in early Term 4 at msoschools.com.au
